

iMovie 4 Skills

Importing QuickTime movies

Capturing video from a camcorder

New clip preferences

Placing clips onto the timeline

The Clip Viewer vs. the Timeline Viewer

Setting the timeline zoom level

Selecting clips to preview

Previewing multiple clips

Monitoring selection status

Copying and pasting clips

Deleting clips from the clips pane

Viewing and changing clip info

Cropping a clip

Restoring media to a cropped clip

Trimming clips

Adjusting clip speed

Splitting a video clip

Creating a black "slug" clip

Reversing a clip

Bringing in a still photo from iPhoto

Importing a photo into the clips pane

Importing photos with the Ken Burns effect

Viewing the Ken Burns effect

Moving a Ken Burns clip to the clips pane

Creating a still frame

Adding audio from iTunes

Adding sound effects

Recording narration

Importing audio from an audio CD

Editing audio volume levels

Muting sound

Extracting audio from a video clip

Pasting video while keeping audio

Locking audio to video

Creating titles

Adding titles to your project

Adding transitions

Adding effects

Editing or deleting transitions

Effects parameters

Adding effects to part of a clip

Removing effects

Applying an effect to multiple clips

Accessing iMovie 3 Help Tutorials

Finding iMovie's keyboard shortcuts

Monitoring disk space

Opening another project

Multiple levels of undo

Minimizing iMovie 3

Full screen preview

Exporting to your camera

Exporting to QuickTime

Adding iDVD chapter markers

Sending your project to iDVD

Another way to sending your project to iDVD